"Crawford County's Voice For Over 100 Years"

105th YEAR  NO. 24—PHONE 348-6811

—PUBLISHED AT GRAYLING, MICHIGAN 49738—

THURS., JUNE 16, 1983—18 PAGES— 25¢

"Old-time Days in the Tall Timber," a festival of life during Michigan's lumbering heyday, will take place June 18 and 19, at Hartwick Pines State Park near Grayling.

Crafts and skills practiced in lumber camps between 1870 and 1910 will be featured including cedar fan carving, blacksmithing, log sawing, music, demonstration of log cabin construction. Visitors can cut their own Lumberjack Dollar as a souvenir of the 2nd annual festival.

Festival hours are between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Sunday. The public is welcome.

Hartwick Pines State Park is located on Highway M-93 north of Grayling and east of I-75. Admission is by State Park Motor Vehicle Permit, $2 daily or $10 annual.

Hartwick Pines has one of the few remaining stands of virgin white pines in Michigan, a remnant of the extensive forest that once covered the State. Exhibits at the Park, installed by the Michigan Historical Museum, focus on aspects of the lumbering industry that harvested the forest, including logging, transportation, the mills, products and the people (shantyboys, mill hands, and wealthy "Lumber Barons").

"Old-time Days in the Tall Timber" is a cooperative effort of the Michigan Historical Museum, Department of State, Parks Division of the Department of Natural Resources, and the Hartwick Pines Natural History Association. For further information, contact Hartwick Pines State Park at 517-348-7068.

Last year, 6,500 persons attended the festival held in August. This year, park officials predict as many as 10,000 visitors may attend if rain doesn't hamper the festival as it did last year.

Shell Awards Contract To Traverse City Firm

Houston—Shell Oil Company today announced it has awarded a contract for site clearance work on a new oil and gas central production facility near Grayling. The contract went to Schworm Inc. of Traverse City.

A Shell spokesman said site preparation for the new facility is expected to begin this week and should be completed before the end of July. A general contractor will be selected soon, and Shell expects to award a construction contract next month. Although some preliminary work may begin this year, it is anticipated major construction activity will not begin until 1984.

The new facility will separate and process crude oil and natural gas. It also will remove sulfur compounds from natural gas. It will be capable of processing more than 1,000 barrels of oil and about 7 million cubic feet of natural gas per day. The facility is expected to begin operations in mid-1985.

Shell said it will spend more than $11 million to construct the new facility. Air and water pollution control equipment represents about 40 percent of the total cost. It will be built on a 12-acre site in Frederic Township about eight miles north of Grayling in Crawford County.

School Board Rejects Placing Other Issues on Sept. Ballot

The Crawford AuSable Board of Education voted not to add other school projects to a September 12th ballot instead keeping the special election for a decision on a new middle school.

The board discussed asking voters to approve money to move the bus garage to the high school, expand spectator seating at the gym, and install alternative energy systems in the new building, but decided not to include the projects with the middle school issue.

The board did decide to add costs of demolishing the old middle school to the total price of building a new middle school. A special citizen committee felt the middle school in its present condition would be unusable and would only be a dangerous liability boarded up. The committee felt the boarded-up middle school would be an attractive site only for vandals.

The board will meet again June 20 to make final plans for a new middle school proposal to go before voters in September.

The board voted May 23 to ask voters for a new middle school attached to the high school. Some facilities will be shared but little mixing of students will occur.

under young jack pines. With only 400 of the birds left in the world it has enough breeding problems without problems from curious humans.

Last year 650 persons - some from overseas and South American countries - went on a Grayling tour. Only a handful of local persons have gone on a Grayling tour in the last two years.

The bird has caused some local resentment spurred by controlled burning to provide habitat. Problems with the national guard were settled amiably a few years ago and now a large warbler nesting area exists on a Camp Grayling range northeast of Grayling.

Besides tours, Peters helps maintain cowbird traps in warbler nesting areas. Cowbirds do not tend their own eggs but instead leave them in other bird nests. A larger and aggressive cowbird hatchling will survive in Kirtland's warbler nests while young warblers die. The U.S. Forest Service, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, DNR, and Michigan Audubon Society started trapping cowbirds in 1972 and have killed an estimated 42,000 cowbirds to date.

The most important job Peters handles during the warbler nesting period is during the annual census to determine how the small number of birds are faring. She is assigned an area to count singing males and attempts to recognize the warblers on her land to avoid counting birds twice. Only the singing males are counted because of their distinctive voice and the difficulty in spotting females. Since most males have mates the county of singing males is doubled for an approximate population.

An exciting part of the census is looking in new habitat areas for warblers. Hearing and finding a new warbler can mean one more step up a ladder that has world-wide extinction at the bottom.

by Jon Thompson

It's 7:30 a.m. on a cold May morning in a stand of young jack pines four miles east of Grayling. A north wind is gusting and snowflakes began to fall, ignoring the calendar that says it's springtime.

But the chill of the morning doesn't stop one of the country's rarest birds from singing its clear, strong song. Nor does it deter a small group of visitors from trying to catch a glimpse of the tiny bird that has caused so much fuss in the north woods of Michigan.

Twice a day at 7 p.m. and 11 a.m. from early May to the middle of July, U.S. Forest Service guide Peggy Peters leads veteran birdwatchers and other curious persons to a Kirtland's warbler nesting site off Richardson Rd. near North Down River Rd. to hear and perhaps see the famous songbird.

"The Kirtland's warbler is a very unwary bird," Peters says. "The male we've been watching will fly to within 10 feet of us."

While others stare or photograph the yellow-breasted male, Peters will peer through binoculars to observe individual markings in order to identify it from other Kirtland's warblers during census surveys.

Sometimes the male will be near the trail and a group will see him within minutes. Other times groups wait two to three hours without a sighting. The bird nests in thick young jack pine stands - wooded areas with little interest to most people - and thus are not usually seen by the general public.

Peters guides the only tours out of the Grayling DNR field office and takes all groups to the same area where one warbler lives right along a two-track trail. This keeps most people from disturbing other nesting areas without supervision. There is another tour offered from the Mio DNR office and neither tour allows persons to look for warbler nests, located near the ground

Cherry County Playhouse
1983 Summer Schedule

June 28-July 10 — "It Had To Be You". The two stars of "Taxi", Carol Kane and Tony Danza, meet again on our stage in this off beat romantic comedy which ends with surprising results.

July 12-17 — "Cactus Flower". The wonderful dancing and singing star of movies and cabaret, Cyd Charisse, brings great fun to this comedy of mistaken identities.

July 19-31 — Patricia Davis, the lovely young daughter of President and Mrs. Reagan, will star in "Vanities" by Jack Heifner. The play follows three high school cheerleaders from Texas into adulthood and beyond.

August 2-7 — George Goebel comes to the Playhouse for the first time in Neil Simon's classic play "The Odd Couple". We have seen many actors play Felix in this story of mismatched roommates but never with more humor.

August 9-14 — "How The Other Half Loves" by Alan Ayckbourn will star Pat Paulsen who needs no introduction to our audiences. This wacky comedy by one of England's most important playwrights finds two couples pulling a third duo into their extra marital hijinks.

August 16-28 — "Crimes Of The Heart" by Beth Henley. Three southern sisters reunite in this Pulitzer prize winner direct from Broadway. This is one of the funniest plays written in several years. Lauren Twees, one of the stars of "Love Boat" joins this brilliant cast.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

WILL AMERICA
SURRENDER?

The first World War was supposed to be the last. On August 27, 1928 the Kellogg Briand Pact was signed by 63 nations pledging to settle all disputes by peaceful means only. The Kellogg Briand Pact deceived the peaceful nations into a false sense of security, and encouraged the aggressive nations to build up their military strength. World War II might never have come if the peaceful nations had maintained a strong military position in the world. Today, history is being repeated. The sure way to bring about World War III is to weaken our defense system.

Revelation chapters 17 and 18 make it very clear that the world will be brought to the control of the antichrist by the help of a world wide religious and economic system. The merger of organized religion and Communism is becoming more clear each day. The 286 member board of the National Council of Churches recently passed a resolution praising the U.S. Roman Catholic bishops for urging a "new theology of peace...which views nuclear war as a most sinful confrontation with our Creator". The only thing you can still trust in religion today is the Bible, and great effort is being made to destroy that.

Alexander Solzhenitsyn has said that "anti-nuclear protesters in the West were blind to the threat that the Soviet Union poses. They do not know the difference between good and evil".

Solzhenitsyn reminds us that in 1919 Lenin "proclaimed a death sentence to the West, this sentence has never been rescinded." Many of us heard Nikita S. Khrushchev stand on American soil in the mid 50's and say, "We will bury you".

Even a blind man should see with Nobel Prize author of THE GULAG ARCHIPELAGO, that "Soviet means and money" are being used in the organizations often found pushing anti-nuclear demonstrations. Russia plans to weaken our defenses enough to call for our surrender.

Young school children across America are being prepared for surrender in the next generation. The National Education Association encourages teachers to train children in these areas. Films like "Bombs Will Make the Rainbow Break", and study materials like "Choices: A Unit on Conflict and Nuclear War", are used to program the thinking of the students for classroom discussion to follow. Students are being encouraged to become involved in letter writing and appeals to the adult world to stop nuclear buildup. Fear, compromise, and surrender are being instilled into a new generation of Americans instead of courage, conviction and defense of the great values like truth, liberty and justice which made America great. The New Dream

By Rev. Thomas A. Bruno
Minister of
The Congregational Church
Roscommon

Bill came to my office more than once from Channel 7 News to discuss with me some things I was interested in for the future of The Congregational Church. At first, he was simply a salesperson, but I soon discovered that he had some insights concerning life, and I liked him. In the next few weeks of coming back and sharing ideas, I discovered he was a Christian and a friendship grew out of this.

One day I asked him, "What makes you so successful in the business world?"

He thought for awhile and said, some years ago he learned an approach to the people who became his clients: "I will not cry for you, but I will solve your problem."

The statement at first sounds simple, but after thinking about it, I began to appreciate its meaning. So many people have cried with me, and have not been able to help. Some have not cried with me, nor helped me!

God has a better idea for you and me. He sent Someone who would come and do more than set an example for us. That would be only going half the way. A great example would merely be heart-breaking and frustrating as we find ourselves unable to follow the example.

Suppose Someone came and stood alongside us and cried with us. He took upon Himself some of the same problems and burdens of life. So when I said I hurt, He understood, and cried with me!

However, He did not stop there. He went on to tell me what the problem is; even told us what the solution was. And when you and I said we could do or get to the solution ourselves, He did something that only GOD CAN DO, He became the solution.

When Jesus died on the Cross, He was not only crying for us, He had just solved our problem.

Sadly, Christian disciples who faithfully bear witness to the outer world, fail to bring home the discipleship of God's love. A discipleship of love which nourishes both the physical and spiritual needs of the family "For everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened."

Nourishment which can take the form of the traditional, such as comes with bread and prayer, or the non-traditional, attending to the special needs of today's family in order to fulfill the eternal purpose of Christ Jesus our Lord "Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named."

To a wife this nourishment could be sharing your feelings or listening to her dreams over a black cup of coffee. To a husband this nourishment could be allowing him the extra time to watch a baseball game into its tenth inning (even though your favorite program is starting on another channel). To a child this nourishment could be daring to discipline while remembering to praise or offering guidance through understanding without criticism or simply sharing your time with Christ, reading God's Word and praying together. A nourishment given in order that all may "know the love of Christ, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God."

As Jesus Christ sent forth his disciples to bear witness of the Father's love to all, so must today's Christians bring discipleship not only to the outer world, but also the inner world of the home for as David observed, "Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth." From such a home will this love shine, reaching out far beyond its walls, radiating God's message of love, "Christ Lives!"

"Will ye also be disciples?"

Michigan Mirror

Report Warns of Future Year Budget Pressures

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

A Citizens Research Council report warns that Governor James Blanchard's proposed 1983-84 budget may set a spending base that current tax rates will not support in future years, but administrative officials said they would not be seeking any additional taxes in the future.

The council report said the governor's budget "will establish a spending base that may not be sustainable in fiscal year 1984-85 given revenues projected for that year."

The report takes into account not only the tax decrease, but predicts the general fund will have to pay about $275 million into the budget stabilization fund.

Management and Budget Director Phillip Jourdan agreed with many aspects of the report, including the projection that the 1984-85 will be tight, particularly because the income tax rate will drop .75 percent points that year.

The rate will drop .25 percentage points in 1983-84.

Jourdan said the governor will not recommend altering that schedule for reduced taxes and will not be supporting additional taxes.

But he said the governor's budget does not set the stage for a spending level that can only be sustained with a tax increase when the Michigan economy once again is hit by a recession.

He added the governor's budget, in many instances, are specifically designed to restore cuts imposed in the last couple of years or other special projects which are not continuing commitments.

Jourdan said the governor is committed to continuing efforts to cut the size of state government and noted the 1983-84 elimination of 2,000 employees would carry over into the following year and would mean added savings.

Jourdan said the council expresses reasonable concerns, but said the state is engaging in forward budgeting as much as it can, particularly when the use of the budget stabilization fund is considered.

UTILITIES CHARGED WITH IMPROPER CAMPAIGN SOLICITATION

Michigan's three largest power utilities should have about $2.9 million deducted from their next rate cases because of improper use of facilities and staff regarding November, 1982, ballot issues, the Public Service Commission staff reports.

The findings were the result of an audit of campaign expenses by Detroit Edison, Consumers Power and Michigan Consolidated Gas.

The ballot issues included two which banned automatic rate adjustments (one was favored by utilities, the other was opposed) and one providing for an elected PSC.

Staff auditor Charles Geyer said the utilities solicited campaign contributions from their suppliers, using company facilities and on company time.

"I conclude the contributions were not entirely voluntary and the solicitation of these donations were improper. For a corporate officer and employees of a utility purchasing department to actively solicit donations suggests either an element of coercion is involved or that conducting business with a utility is so lucrative a donation is necessary," Geyer said.

The utilities will be permitted to present evidence at a hearing to be scheduled before a hearing officer. Then the PSC itself will issue a final order.

The audit was conducted after the Michigan Citizens Lobby filed a complaint and the PSC ordered a review to ensure expenditures for advertising, electioneering and wages not be recognized as part of the rates of the utilities.

The amounts to be deducted under the staff recommendations include $1.2 million for amounts contributed by the suppliers and $1.7 million more in utility payrolls and overhead expenses.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

I am a member of a group called the "Grand Traverse Metis," which is a group of families much interested in the costumes, customs and weapons of the half-breeds who once lived in the Old Northwest Territory prior to and during our Revolutionary War. The metis used the fox as their symbol for good reason. The metis were not accepted by either the Indians or the whites, so they pretty much had to depend upon themselves for survival just as the fox does.

The fox is a lone hunter and by his skills as a hunter either lives or dies. I have watched, on occasion, various foxes while they hunted or loafed. If you live in a foxes' area and mean no harm, they seem to tolerate you with a vote of confidence which probably is the foxes' method of showing contempt. As a kid, I never hunted the fox, but those who did told interesting stories of how the fox would play with the dogs. They seem to develop a plan to drive the dogs crazy. They would appear with a careful air of inattention, begging to be chased. Then, when the chase started, they would simply evaporate into the brush and nearby cover. The chase would leave the dogs tired and sore footed, but the next day the fox was back seemingly looking for another romp. The fox can live in close association with man and still be seldom seen except perhaps as the fox dictates. The fox is a master of survival as his continued presence in the face of man's expanding invasion of his domain indicates.

Homemaker Services

Homemaker Service has been available to the Handicapped Crawford County Senior Citizen for over four years. Homemaker Services is partially funded by Northeast Michigan Community Services, Incorporated, and is sponsored and administered by the Crawford County Commission on Aging. The purpose of the program is to locate people 60 years of age and older, who are unable to perform routine daily tasks, such as preparing meals, washing dishes, changing bedding, vacuuming, dusting and other light housekeeping chores. This may be a temporary condition due to an illness, injury, arthritis or other handicap. Handicapped is defined as the inability to perform daily tasks, whether it be from arthritis, heart problems, just returning from the hospital but still recuperating or any illness that is disabling.

Again I would like to thank all of the people that have donated to the program. These donations are very much appreciated, since this program could not continue without them. Without these donations we would not be able to service all of the handicapped. We would only be able to service the severely handicapped.

If you have new medications or changes in your Vial Of Life please come into the Center & have it updated. If you are unable to come into the Center call Myrtle McPhail.

June 30th, 1983. Winners will be announced July 20th, 1983. In addition to the writing contest, beginning the first week of June many stores began displaying work by local children and youth based on the theme, "Why I Love Grayling."

Children from the Art Departments of all the schools, as well as some churches and the Day Care Center are participating. Adults are also urged to participate.

"I Love Grayling" pins are available at the Chamber of Commerce office and several other places in Grayling.

For more information on art participation contact June Robinson at Wood and Purr.

Attention All Green Thumbs

On Thursday, May 26, 1983, Mrs. Bovee's class visited the Bovee household. The fifth grade class took lunches to Mrs. Bovee's house. We ate in the dining room and saw the greenhouse, which is attached to the dining room. Mr. Bovee showed us the greenhouse which is very interesting. Mr. Bovee has a grapefruit tree, an orange tree and a lemon tree. They had different types of geraniums. They also had different types of vegetables. Another plant called the mimosa will curl up when you touch it. When we were ready to leave Mr. Bovee showed us his old Model A. When we got back to our class everyone got some coleus. Some others also got a plant called a kalanchoe. Thank you Mr. and Mrs. Bovee!

Wednesday Bridge Club

The Wednesday Bridge Club celebrated 35 years with an anniversary dinner at the home of Mrs. Mary Pettengill on May 11, 1983. The present members, with the exception of the four honored members, brought the potluck dinner for the occasion. Following dinner, bridge was played with prizes for the evening going to Mary Jane Knibbs, Mabel Gothro and Jean Gothro.

Four of the original members were presented with a gift, baskets with a plant and a 35 year marker. The four were Faith Stripe, Doris Souders, Jean Gothro and Marian Joseph.

The idea originated when Alice Bond, Florence Borchers, and Agnes Richardson gathered enough women together for three tables of bridge for the purpose of giving instructions. The lessons proved so enjoyable that the group decided they would continue throughout the winter. Instead of disbanding the group continued to play, sometimes Monday, sometimes Tuesday, and in most recent years, on Wednesdays. They have still maintained the three tables of cards. Besides the three instructors, and the four 35-year members, the original group included Isabel Allison, Mary Peterson, Jane Lawler, Martelle Lietz and Helen Corwin.

GRAYLING LEADER DOGS—Shown above are Pam Cowie and her golden retriever Honcho, Louie Rioux and his golden retriever Rocky, Todd Peterson and his black lab Champ, Tina Golnick and her black lab Keila, and Mr. and Mrs. Beebe, of Alpena, breeders for leader dogs for the blind. The four dogs will be cared for and taught preliminary commands for one year at their Grayling homes before being enrolled in a school preparing them as Leader Dogs.

From the '83 GHS class the four seniors on the wrestling team all are planning on attending college next fall. Dan Meldrum will be attending the University of Michigan, John Solomonson - Oakland University, Steve Sauve - Alma College, and Jim Piper - Muskegon Community College.

The '82 and '81 grads are Tim Jones - Northern Michigan University, Burt Partello - Lake Superior State College, Steve Allen - Michigan State University, Tim Ferrigan - Muskegon C.C., Tim Jensen - Northern, Dave Pettit-LSS, and Jeff Knight - Muskegon C.C.

TO THE CUSTOMERS OF
MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY

Case No. U-7609

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED
NEW DUAL FUEL INDUSTRIAL AND LARGE VOLUME COMMERCIAL RATES

On March 29, 1983, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company (MichCon) filed an application in the above matter.

MichCon is a Michigan corporation with principal offices located at 500 Griswold Street, Detroit, Michigan and is engaged in the production, purchase, transmission, distribution and sale of natural gas in numerous communities throughout the State of Michigan.

MichCon indicates that it has experienced a dramatic decrease in total sales, and especially industrial sales, since 1979. MichCon states that the reduction in gas sales to the industrial market has been due to plant closings, the economic recession, conservation and the competitive advantage of alternate fuels. MichCon believes that the last factor will continue to have an adverse effect on its markets and projects a continued decrease in its industrial sales in the future.

MichCon states that it believes it can to some extent ameliorate the loss of sales it has been experiencing by making the rate at which it sells gas to certain industrial and large volume commercial customers more competitive with alternate fuels. MichCon contends that this will mitigate the increase in the share of its fixed costs which must otherwise be borne by its remaining customers when industrial and large volume commercial sales are lost and also reduce its take-or-pay exposure to its suppliers.

MichCon requests that the Commission permit it to sell gas to certain industrial and large volume commercial customers under new rate schedules which are more competitive with alternate fuels than any of MichCon's other rate schedules.

MichCon proposes that the new rate schedules be available to customers that have the capability to burn either natural gas or oil/propane and will be unable to continue to purchase natural gas, or will be unable to continue to resume the purchase of natural gas, or will have to substantially reduce the purchase of natural gas from MichCon, and will utilize alternate fuel, unless they purchase gas under the new rate schedules. In addition, in order to purchase gas under Rate Schedules Nos. 4 or 4-I, the customer will be required to use the gas only in a facility or equipment with a nameplate rating in excess of 50,000 Cf per hour or 50 MMBtu per hour. Rate Schedule 4-I differs from Rate Schedule 4 only in that it applies to those larger volume customers who are subject to the incremental pricing provisions of the Natural Gas Policy Act of 1978.

MichCon states that each customer under Rate Schedules Nos. 4 or 4-I will be required to pay a rate equal to (1) the commodity gas component in Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Company's Rate Schedule MC-1 (currently $3.3421 per dekatherm or 33.96 cents per Cf), plus (2) the current authorized monthly customer service charge and commodity charge, per unit, that would otherwise be applicable to the customer if it did not qualify for Rate Schedules Nos. 4 or 4-I, plus (3) certain surcharges and taxes. In addition, each customer under Rate Schedule No. 4-I will be subject to an incremental pricing alternate fuel charge, if any. However, MichCon indicates that in no event shall the rate charged for service under the new rate schedules exceed that which would otherwise be applicable to the customer if it did not qualify for Rate Schedules Nos. 4 or 4-I.

MichCon states that the new rates shall not be subject to any adjustments for cost of purchased gas as provided in Rule No. 30 of its Rules and Regulations. The cost of gas specifically associated with sales under Rate Schedules Nos. 4 and 4-I (i.e., the commodity gas component of the MC-1 rate) shall be excluded from the cost of gas in any purchased gas cost recovery calculation or reconciliation.

MichCon further states that inasmuch as the gas to be sold by MichCon under the proposed new rate schedules would not, but for the reduced rate, otherwise be sold to the customers in question under existing rate schedules, the proposed Rate Schedules Nos. 4 and 4-I will not increase the rates and charges of MichCon, or alter, change or amend said rates and charges in such a way as to increase the cost of service to MichCon's customers.

MichCon proposes that the new rate schedules be made effective immediately and terminate on October 31, 1984.

Jurisdiction in this matter is pursuant to 1909 PA 300, as amended, MCLA 462.2 et seq.; 1919 PA 419, as amended, MCLA 460.51 et seq.; 1939 PA 3, as amended, MCLA 460.1 et seq.; 1969 PA 306, as amended, MCLA 24.201 et seq.; and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 1979 Administrative Code, R 460.11 et seq.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT:

A. A public hearing in this matter will be held at 9:30 a.m. on July 6, 1983 in the offices of the Commission, Mercantile Building, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan, for the purpose of determining whether the authority sought should be granted. Any interested persons may attend the hearing and participate, subject to the provisions of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

B. Any persons seeking to intervene, in accordance with Rule 11 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Commission, shall file with the Commission, on or before July 1, 1983, an original and 7 copies of a petition to intervene, together with Proof of Service upon MichCon. Subparagraph (2) of said Rule 11 provides as follows:

"(2) A petition to intervene shall set out clearly and concisely the facts supporting the petitioner's alleged right or interest, the grounds of the proposed intervention, and the position of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as fully and completely to advise the parties and the Commission of the specific issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted." (Emphasis added)

The Commission will require strict compliance with the above-quoted rule.

C. Michigan Consolidated Gas Company shall, on or before June 22, 1983, file with the Commission a copy of the written direct testimony of its proposed witnesses with regard to this matter.

56,600 To Lose Jobless Benefits

Nearly 56,600 jobless Michigan workers now receiving extended unemployment benefits will lose those benefits after June 11, because the state will no longer qualify for the federal-state Extended Benefit (EB) program, S. Martin Taylor, director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC), announced today.

Despite the loss of the EB program, those currently receiving or those about to begin receiving EB will not see any immediate loss in jobless benefits, Taylor said. "The Federal Supplemental Compensation (FSC) program will remain in effect at least through the end of September, when it is scheduled to end," he explained. "Most of those now receiving or about to receive EB will immediately move into the FSC program and will avoid any interruption in their benefit payments."

The federally-funded FSC program provides jobless benefits for those who exhaust EB and regular state benefits.

Alumni News

Our congratulations to the Seniors who graduated last week. Welcome to the rank of G.H.S. Alumni. We are proud of you. You are another outstanding class.

An extra word for David Martella who made the Academic All-State Honorable Mention Class C. This is the first time this selection has been made. Advice from one other of these students... quote, "Do more than is expected of you; no one gets recognition for doing only as well, or as much, as they are supposed to do". Unquote. How true.

Our annual G.H.S. Alumni Homecoming date is set for September 10. Annual letters will be mailed out the first of August with details and news of our activities of the past year...There are some Reunions planned for this Summer...but remember that you are all welcome to bring your Reunions to us...the more the merrier. Write to the Alumni Office, 403 Mich. Ave. or call Clara Sorenson, 8-8260. We will reserve a space for you.

This weekend, our "paid membership" will meet at the Shoppenagon for noon luncheon. Our guest will be Superintendent Kent Reynolds. I am sure he will have some interesting words for us. He has a responsibility that he carries with dignity.

Just a word on the personal side for Elsie and Ernest Larson... "It couldn't happen to a nicer couple". Ernie, '26, has worked diligently for us ever since we organized. Now he has retired. We appreciate his contribution.

"How You Live May Save Your Life"

Chamber Chatter

By Joyce Kolka

The regular meeting of the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors was held at the Chief Shoppington Motor Hotel last Thursday and the following officers were elected: President, Joe Wakeley; 1st Vice President, Sherry Hanson; 2nd Vice President, Kathy Ashton; Secretary/Treasurer, John Alef II and Past President is Ernie Dawson.

Public Relations Director, Don Geiss, attended a meeting recently of the Tourism & Recreation Committee sponsored by the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce. Among the items considered at the meeting was a discussion of signs on and along Michigan Interstate Highways. Many of the comments were about the symbol signs near exits. There was a question about whether the symbols covered all of the possible major tourist businesses.

Another item on the agenda dealt with the possible use for recreation of abandoned railroad rights-of-way. This was primarily related to areas in southern Michigan where there are areas that could be used for bicycle trails. Geiss said that the committees will be increasingly important in the tourism business since the State Chamber can make a significant impact on state decisions.

Perhaps lost in the planning for functions in the area is the maintenance of a community calendar by the Chamber Office and with the help of the Grayling Promotional Assoc. We note that there have been some minor conflicts in scheduling lately because events were not listed on the calendar or the chamber was not checked before a date was set for a function. The handling of a calendar by a central organization will hopefully aid in the selection of dates most profitable or best attended.

The next issue of the Northern Michigan Travelers Guide due out in July will contain copy promoting this area. The guide is distributed in the tourist information centers along the highways and in many businesses in and adjoining counties. One article submitted to the guide editors promotes the AuSable Canoe Marathon and the Milltown Festival and the other is devoted to scenic trips in Crawford County. A luncheon was held last Friday at the Holiday Inn for Maj. General Vernon Andrews, the new Adjutant General of Michigan. General Andrews flew into Grayling for National Guard business and took the time to meet with governmental officials and citizens and discuss the plans for Camp Grayling.

Another major first for the Milltown Festival will be a Moon-walk experience of weightlessness. A commercial entrance fee required portable building will house the event which will allow persons to experience firsthand what the astronauts feel when in space.

Also planned for the first time will be awards for the best male and female costume lending itself to the logging era. Secret judges will circulate through Grayling during the festival and will name the winners prior to the parade on August 6th. Judy Gibbons, co-chairperson of the Costume Committee said that many of the ladies are already planning their dress. We ask the question now, can the men permit the ladies to outdo them in the costume department?

The Milltown Festival Committee set up a Hot Dog and Coke Concession Stand next to Glen's Market last weekend with the proceeds going to pay band expenses and advertising. Many thanks to the R.S.V.P. workers: Mr. and Mrs. Lobdell, Mr. and Mrs. Leykauf, Mr. and Mrs. Rushton and Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd. Also a big thanks to Walt & Marti Nowak, Ann Shively, Doris Bircher, Ralph Stevens, Nancy Hatfield, John Cherven, Camp Grayling and Fred Armstrong of Glen's Market for making it all possible. We couldn't have done it without you!

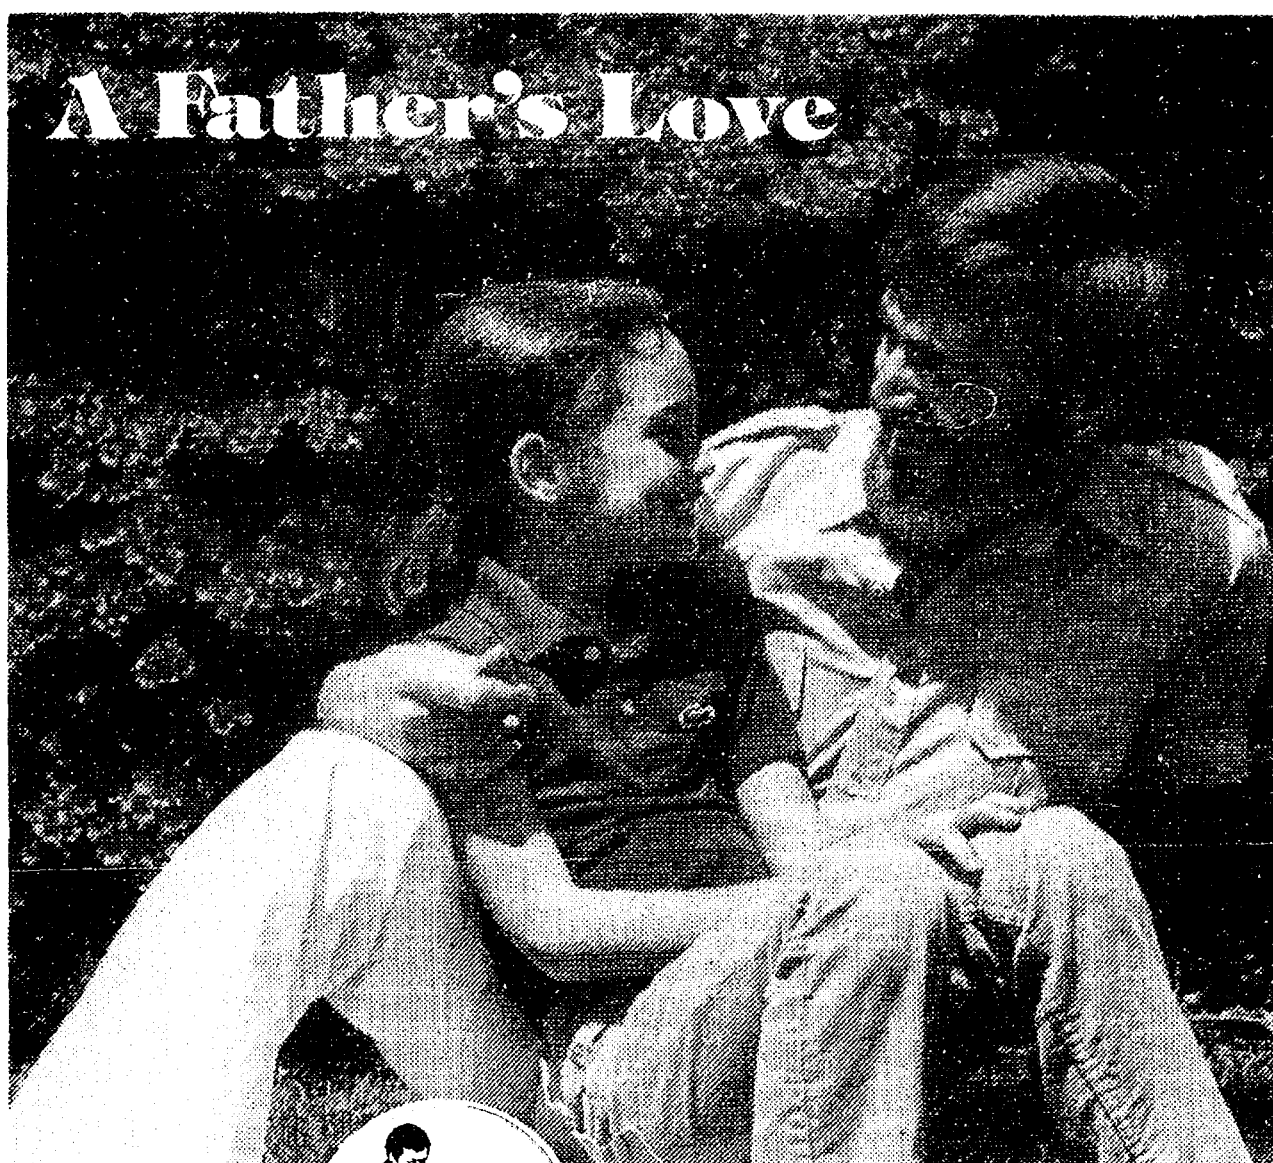

The Chamber Membership Drive is on and those members and prospective members who have not returned their membership applications will be contacted by the Membership Chairman, Walt Nowak. Former Chairperson, Ruth Steffe has volunteered her services in several other capacities.

Immediate commitment to chamber membership is necessary for assured listing in the Chamber's Travelers Guide. More application cards will be sent upon request, just phone the chamber office.

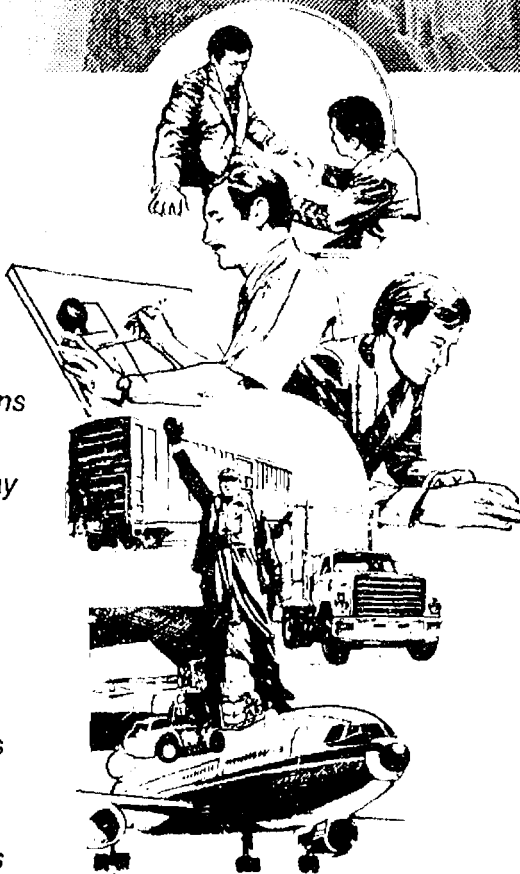

This week we wish to salute Joe Wakeley, who with his wife, Terri, are the owners of Jolly Redskin Canoe Livery. Joe is the Crawford County Treasurer and newly elected Chamber President. He has been a very active Board member and held the office of 1st Vice President for fiscal year 1982-83. Joe, we appreciate all of the volunteer work you have put into the Chamber and you rightly deserve this recognition. We are truly looking forward to working with you through Fiscal Year 1983-84. Joe, this is your week - our hats are off to you!!

A father's love is one of life's greatest joys. Though a son or daughter grows up all too quickly, there are wonderful memories of many good times spent together.

Fathers deserve a national day of honor. Look how much they do for their families. They leave home early each morning and come back late, often tired. Their toll in the work places of the world provides shelter, food, clothes, education and a great deal of happiness.

Above all, a real father gives of himself to those he loves through his understanding, kindness, guidance and encouragement.

Our Heavenly Father showed how much he cares for each of us by sending his own beloved son to lay down his life for us that we might have eternal life.

Find the strength for your life in the power of that divine love. Worship this week.

Weaver's Gifts & Cook's Cottage Give New Look to Milltown

An elegant new Milltown design going on Weaver's Gifts and Cook's Cottage in downtown Grayling would be appropriate for the year 1983 or 1883.

In 1883, Grayling was beginning to boom as a lumber town and 100 years later, long after the lumber era ended, Grayling has returned to a Milltown theme as a tourist attraction.

In either era the building design will be considered a fine display of artwork.

Bay City artist Terry Dickinson is currently working on both building exteriors using plans fashioned after elaborate Milltown storefronts in Disney World in Florida. Dickinson, a well-known mural painter, has built molds using polyester to create ornate trim that looks like wood carving. He will be installing four full columns and four half-columns in front of the stores and more than 300 spindles in a balcony covering the full length and front of the stores.

Interior changes are also being made with both outside and inside work expected to be completed in July.

A new bay window and new carpeting has changed the appearance inside Weaver's, but Black Hills Gold jewelry, 40 styles of woman's moccasins, Hudson's Bay wool coats and blankets, Red Flannel underwear, and Mackinac Island fudge and hand-dipped chocolates will still be featured merchandise.

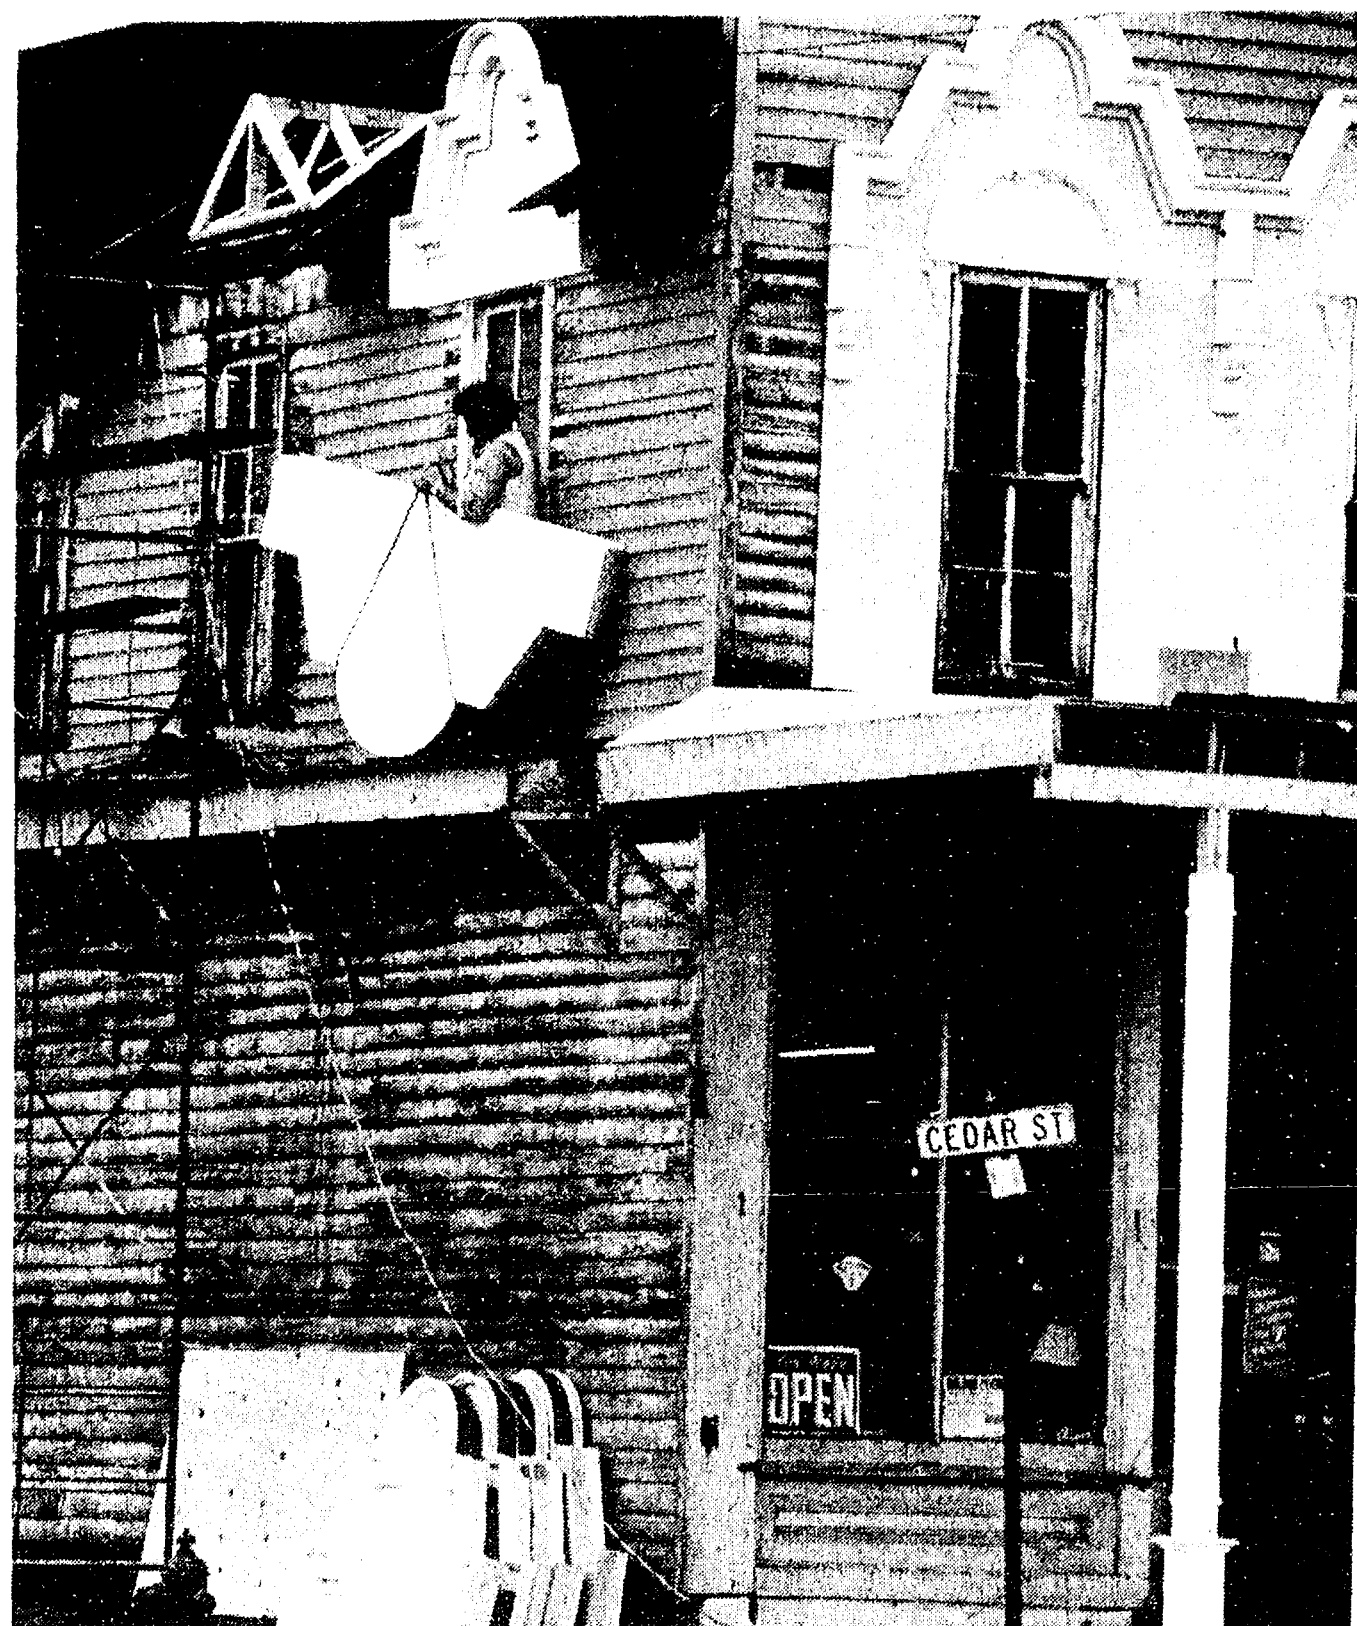

The military section of Weaver's Gifts will be expanded this year offering more emblematic jewelry and other items especially made for Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, and other troops. Weaver's also has a full line of collector's and hunting knives.

Cook's Cottage will be returning its emphasis to kitchen items. Headlining their merchandise will be Pfaltzgraph Dinnerware in three patterns including the brand new American collection. Other kitchen items are crystal pewter, table-top linens, and gadgets.

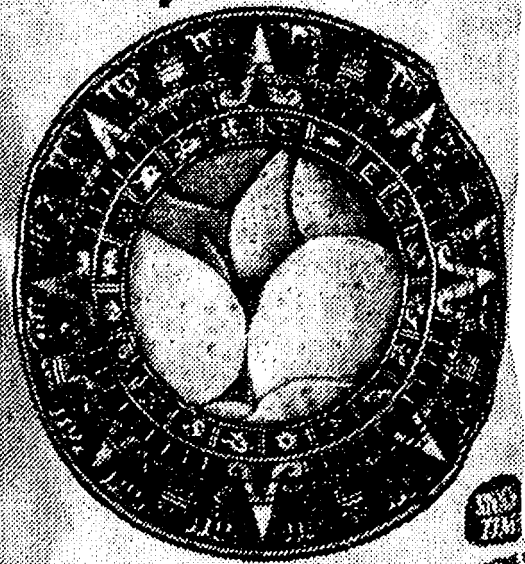

Cook's Cottage also has telepainting by local artists and 20 colors of stationary along with 24-hour monogram service.

After all the interior and exterior changes are made, a hand-carved sign "Welcome to Milltown U.S.A." will be displayed along the side of Weaver's. (Paid Adv.)

GTE Offers Options For Acquiring Phones

Residential customers of General Telephone will have another option for acquiring telephones beginning June 20, according to Max Preston, state vice president and general manager for the telephone utility.

Telephone companies have traditionally "leased" phones to customers who paid a rate set by the state regulatory agency. Under deregulation, General Telephone will sell customers those phones or "rent" customers phones on a deregulated basis.

The new rental option is another step in the deregulation of the telephone industry which has been ordered by the Federal Communications Commission.

Deregulated rental phones will be offered in a greater variety of colors and styles than the regulated leased since the stocks of leased telephones are limited and this option is not offered to new customers. The deregulated rent option will be extended to customers who change or add telephones to their existing service and those who install new telephone service.

"We will be informing customers of all options in a bill insert that will be included in their monthly telephone bills beginning this week," Preston said. "Customers whose questions are not answered by the bill insert are urged to call their GTE service office."

Ivan Gwilt, who won a Black Hills Gold necklace, Corky Hellebuyck, who won a jade ring on his wife's birthday, and Tom Mills, who won a gallon of paint while in the middle of repainting his home.

The treasure hunt was sponsored by the Grayling Promotional Association.
